

Further steps should be taken to eliminate cross ownership of TV radio, newspaper, magazine, etc. The entire media delivery system is now in the hands of only a few large corporations, This is entirely unacceptable and it infringes on the public's right to unbiased information sources.